

Bloomington Fireworks 2018 FAQ Document

Why are there fireworks downtown this year?

Downtown Bloomington is always energetic and it's even more vibrant during holidays. This year Cook Group and CFC Properties are excited to bring a firework show to downtown Bloomington in celebration of the Bicentennial and to kick-off Fourth of July celebrations.

Who is sponsoring the fireworks?

Cook Group and CFC Properties are excited to partner with the City in this event.

What streets will be closed and when?

North Rogers between 10th and 11th streets will be closed between 10 a.m. and 11 p.m. on Tuesday, July 3. Because we expect this to be a big event, there might be higher than normal traffic congestion near the square and the Trades District.

When will the fireworks show begin?

The firework display is scheduled to begin at 9:45 p.m. on Tuesday, July 3.

Where will the fireworks be launched?

The fireworks will be launched from the Trades District located between 10th Street and 11th Street just east of Rogers Street.

How was this site selected as the fireworks launch site?

Cook Group, CFC and the City of Bloomington wanted to continue the tradition of bringing the community together to enjoy downtown. The Trades District was the perfect location for this event.

What is the perimeter around the launch site?

The City has worked hard on safety for the event. There will be a perimeter around the fireworks display area. Please see attached map. Viewers will not be able to watch the fireworks inside that area.

What is the plan if it rains?

In the event of bad weather, the celebration will be rescheduled for Saturday, July 7 at 9:45 p.m. We will communicate the change as soon as possible via the Cook Medical Facebook page and the City of Bloomington's Twitter and Facebook pages. We will also alert local media to changes. If inclement weather is in the area the fireworks may start earlier or later than scheduled.
